WEEKEND OF PRAYER

2024. May 10-12

Prayer for a revival 2.

(Notes inspired by Evert-Jan Ouweneel, Strategy Director Identity within the Dutch Salvation Army)

Evil attacks all that is good in creation, seeking to steal and destroy.
But God is stronger.

As his disciples, we are called to be that prophetic voice in the storm of bad news.

We declare that this world is still in the hand of God. This world is still a safe place created and desired by God. We must repeat: "God wants me and you, he wants to give life, to restore, to equip".

We cannot fix the world. But we need extraordinary faith and commitment to do what we can today, here.

We must remain calm and at peace in Christ.

We must remain compassionate to our neighbor.

We must remain peacemakers.

We must remain visionary and build God's kingdom.

We must remain hopeful, faithful and joyful.

With our prophetic voice, we must stand in the storm and proclaim the Word of God as Ezekiel did:

« Thus says the Lord God:

Come from the four winds, O Breath, Holy Spirit, and breathe on these slain that they may live. »

Ezekiel 37.9

Bible reading

Ezechiel 37.1-10

Prayer requests

- The dedication of our 4 new Officers in May « Creator God, who formed humanity from dust, breathe in them again. Revive them and sanctify them by the power of Your Spirit. Set their heart on fire with the good news of Your Gospel »
- The 100 years celebrations, May the 24th to the 26th
« Our God, in Your name we prophesy to the breath, Holy Spirit, wind of God to bring life, restoration and salvation into all the attendees of our 100 years celebrations, into what feels dead. »
- The Salvation Army in Hungary
« God, we speak life over your beloved Salvation Army Church in Hungary. Where it is dis-membered, bring it back together. Where it looks dry and dead, animate it with Your word and Your Spirit. These bones shall live and be Your living Army! »

God bless you!
